1. a. One north-bound train of 12 coaches, each occupied by 50 to 60 young soldiers, passed through FUERSTENBERG (N 54/U 52). The soldiers wore good uniforms with blue epaulets and had baggage with them. According to civilians, a similar train, allegedly occupied by parachute troops, passed through FUERSTENBERG on the same day.

- b. One train of six flatcars, each loaded with two guns of 75 mm caliber, and about 50 sealed boxcars, was observed in the FUERSTENBERG RR station area. The train was allegedly to be unloaded in FUERSTENBERG.

- c. One train was observed being unloaded in DANNENWALDE (N 54/U 61) in the afternoon of 2 June 1949. The unloading of four flatcars was completed, while seventeen flatcars were each still loaded with two field guns of 75 mm caliber on split-trail carriages. Six sealed RR boxcars were also on this train.

A

a. On par 1a: The train concerned presumably carried recruits for air force units in the Mecklenburg area. The information that parachute troops were concerned is considered incredible.

b. On par 1b and 1c: The trains concerned presumably carried troops to the TEMPLEN training area.

c. On par 2: The north-bound train, passing through KOETHEN, possibly went to JUTTERBOG (from there to MARKENDORF?).

d. On par 3: The train concerned possibly carried component units of the 7th Gds Mezz Div (Cadre) to the Scharnueffel Lake or LIEBEROSE training area.

e. On par 4: The special train presumably conveyed recruits to the Soviet Zone of Germany (late arrival of soldiers, so far deferred from the draft?).

f. On par 5: The train concerned possibly carried component units of 1st Mezz Div from DOLBERITZ to a training grounds (WITTSTOCK Area?).

g. On par 6: Transfer of an artillery unit to a training grounds (Letzling Heath?).
